Program Assistant Application for Intensive Level 2 Training: Asheville, NC Area (515)

1. Please don't apply to be a Program Assistant (PA) in this training if you have a dual/multiple relationship with the training's Lead Trainer, Co-Lead Trainer, Guest Trainer, Assistant Trainer, Lead Trainer Mentee, and/or Assistant Trainer Mentee.
2. To apply to be a Program Assistant (PA) in this training, you must:
 - A. Already have earned the Certificate of Completion from a Level 2 IFS training program;
 - B. Not apply to be a participant in this training;
 - C. Complete this form and submit it to IFS Institute (use above contact information), even if you've been a PA before or have spoken with a trainer about being a PA for this training. You may contact IFS Institute to confirm that we received your PA application (use above contact information).
3. PAs are selected by each program's trainers, and applicants are notified by trainers about being chosen or not. Trainers may select some PAs before the application deadline, and/or shortly before the training begins. You may not hear from trainers about being selected until about two weeks before the training begins. Please contact the trainers if you have questions. Contact information is in the website's "About Us – Trainers" and/or "Find a Professional" listings.
4. A separate PA application is required for each training you apply for. PA applications from other trainings, or forms you create on your own, will not be accepted.
5. PA spaces are limited, and we recommend that you apply early.
6. For all the details about the training, including dates, daily schedules, location, lodging options, and more, please review the training's website brochure.
7. If you accept a PA position in another IFS training after submitting this application, you are required to inform the Lead and Assistant Trainers. Contact information is in the website's "About Us – Trainers" and/or "Find a Professional" listings.
8. Regular and Extra PAs

Trainers may elect to have more PAs than usual for Level 2 trainings, under the conditions listed below, and trainers must tell PAs if they will be "regular" or "extra". We all understand that this policy for extra PAs is not ideal, but for a variety of reasons, including site size, availability, and a variety of costs, this is the compromise we arrived at. Please keep in mind that no Level 2 has to have extra PAs.

 - A. No overnigher/commuter arrangements (eg., lodging, meals, facility use) can be guaranteed at this time for extra PAs by IFS Institute. The first 5, regular PAs chosen by the trainers will be accommodated per IFS Institute's usual policies.
 - B. Regular and extra PAs are required to follow all applicable PA policies and procedures.
9. PA Stipends
 - A. Only experienced PAs receive stipends. An experienced PA is someone who has served as a Level 1 or Level 2 PA for an entire training that has already ended by the starting date of the new training.
 - B. All experienced PAs (regular and extra) are paid the same daily stipend of US$55/day.
 - C. Daily stipends are paid for each full day an experienced PA is present. Stipends are not paid for training days with 2 or fewer training hours, days that are partially attended, or days a PA is absent.

- 10. Program Assistants may not make audio or visual recordings or take photographs of any part of any IFS training session, or use services such as Skype, Zoom, FaceTime, etc., to transmit or receive any part of any IFS training session.
- 11. If a Program Assistant receives a complaint from a participant about a training, the Program Assistant is required to handle it according to IFS Institute’s Grievance Policy as posted at www.ifs-institute.com.
- 12. PA Overnighter and Day-Commuter Packages for This Program

We will be meeting at the beautiful Lake Junaluska Conference & Retreat Center located near historic Asheville, NC. Please visit the LJCRC website for details about this site, and also see the training’s website brochure for information.

Program Assistants are responsible for their own lodging and meal costs. Your Overnighter or Day Commuter reservations at the site need to be made by IFS Institute’s Site Services Coordinator, and we will use information you provide on a reservation form you will receive via email from IFS Institute’s Site Services Coordinator after you are accepted into the program as a PA. While it is not required, we encourage you to lodge at the training site for your convenience, and so you can get to know your fellow training members and enhance your overall experience.

Lodging and meals during the training are reserved for training members. Some people may wish to bring a spouse or partner, but we don’t recommend this. First, the 5-day format is an intensive undertaking. You will have some free time, but it will be limited, and you may prefer to spend it on your own or socializing with others in the training. Also, IFS Institute could only prudently make financial commitments to the site for lodging and meals for people in the training. If you wish to stay with someone who is not a member of the training, you are welcome to explore other lodging options, and then the Day Commuter fee would apply.

If you are considering arriving early or staying late at the training site, please contact the site directly (after you are accepted as a PA for the training) to find out if they can accommodate you and what your costs would be. IFS Institute cannot make or be responsible for reservations or other arrangements outside of the training dates. Site contact information is at the end of this brochure.

Pets are not permitted.

Please also see the Site and Travel Information section in the training’s website brochure.

If you have questions about overnighter or commuter arrangements, please contact IFS Institute’s Site Services Coordinator, Dan@IFS-Institute.com.

Overnighter Package

The Overnighter Package (including use of the site, snacks/beverages, and “room and board”) is $787 per person for single occupancy, $526 per person for double occupancy. The Overnighter Package includes complimentary breakfast, lunch and dinner starting with breakfast on May 18, and ending with lunch on May 22. Common dietary restrictions may be accommodated with sufficient advanced notice to IFS Institute’s Site Services Coordinator. Reservations and meal arrangements (including dietary requests) must be made and billed by IFS Institute using the Reservation Form you will receive from IFS Institute after you are accepted as a PA into the training.

Day Commuter Package

This is a pass-through fee required of those who do not lodge at the training site. The Day Commuter Package is $290 per person, including use of the site, snacks/beverages, and complimentary breakfast, lunch and dinner, starting with breakfast on May 18 and ending with lunch on May 22. Common dietary restrictions may be accommodated with sufficient advanced notice to IFS Institute's Site Services Coordinator. Reservations and meal arrangements (including dietary requests) must be made and billed by IFS Institute using the Reservation Form you will receive from IFS Institute after you are accepted as a PA into the training.

IFS Institute, Inc.

Dual/Multiple Relationship Policy for Training Staff Members in Level 1, 2, and 3 Internal Family SystemsSM (IFSSM) Training Programs Organized by IFS Institute, Inc.

Definitions:

Trainer – For the purposes of this policy, any Lead Trainer, Co-Lead Trainer, Guest Trainer, Assistant Trainer, Assistant Trainer Mentee, Program Assistant, and other person(s) teaching at an IFS Level 1, 2, or 3 training program organized by IFS Institute.

Participant – For the purposes of this policy, anyone who is a student in an IFS Level 1, 2, or 3 training program organized by IFS Institute.

Roster – The document generated by IFS Institute for each training that may list training applicants, accepted training participants, trainers, and their personal information. Rosters are routinely updated with additional applicants, participants, and trainers.

1. Different states, provinces, and other governmental jurisdictions may have different policies regarding dual/multiple relationships for counselors, therapists, and other professionals for whom dual/multiple relationships may exist. Therefore, trainers are expected to take responsibility for checking with their particular and applicable governing policies, and for adhering to the professional standards for dual/multiple relationships outlined therein. Trainers are also expected to adhere to the governing policies of their professional disciplines regarding dual/multiple relationships.
2. It is IFS Institute's policy that a trainer may not enter into a therapeutic or supervisory relationship with a training participant or other trainer in their training until the training is completed. Trainers are expected to adhere to the professional standards as in paragraph 1 above if those standards are more stringent or comprehensive than IFS Institute's.
3. IFS Institute is committed to maintaining the safety of its highly experiential IFS training programs. To that end, IFS Institute is sensitive to the potential difficulties of any type of dual/multiple relationship between trainer and trainer, or trainer and participant. Therefore, IFS Institute requires Lead Trainers, Co-Lead Trainers, Assistant Trainers, Guest Trainers, and Assistant Trainer Mentees, to review all applicants for their trainings to determine if they are in dual/multiple relationships with any of them.

If you, as a Lead Trainer, Co-Lead Trainer, Assistant Trainer, Guest Trainer, or Assistant Trainer Mentee, believe you are in a dual/multiple relationship with anyone that involves privileged communication, particularly (but not only) supervisory or therapeutic, you must contact the other person(s) and resolve the situation in accordance with this policy before the training begins, and thoroughly work out how the dual/multiple relationship will be managed through the end of the training. IFS Institute acknowledges that dual/multiple relationships that involve privileged communication are confidential and, therefore, IFS Institute cannot be responsible for resolving them or for their existence in its training programs.

4. If you, as a Lead Trainer, Co-Lead Trainer, Assistant Trainer, Guest Trainer, or Assistant Trainer Mentee, believe you are in a dual/multiple relationship with anyone that does not involve privileged communication, you may either contact the other person(s) and resolve the situation in accordance with this policy before the training begins, or contact your Lead Trainer before the training begins.

If a participant or trainer is going to be asked to withdraw from a training in order to resolve a dual/multiple relationship that does not involve privileged communication, and that person is dissatisfied with being asked to withdraw, then at that time the Lead Trainer will send an email to IFS Institute's Executive Director, and simultaneously send a copy of that email to IFS Institute's Director of Staffing and Training Program Coordinator for their information. The final decision about how to handle a dual/multiple relationship that does not involve privileged communication rests with IFS Institute's Executive Director.

5. If any trainer wants to disclose their dual/multiple relationship to other trainers in their training, then the trainer with a dual/multiple relationship must have a signed agreement with the person with whom they have a dual/multiple relationship granting permission for such disclosure.

If any trainer wants to disclose their dual/multiple relationship to participants in their training, then the trainer with the dual/multiple relationship must have a signed agreement with the participant with whom they have a dual/multiple relationship granting permission for such disclosure. These written agreements must be provided, secured, and held by the trainer, and are not the responsibility of IFS Institute. These written agreements must be completed before the training begins.

6. If you are a Lead Trainer, Co-Lead Trainer, Guest Trainer, Assistant Trainer, or Assistant Trainer Mentee, you must access your trainings' rosters on IFS Institute's file sharing system when you need to know more about who is involved with your trainings.

7. Dual/Multiple Relationships Involving Program Assistants, and Assistant Trainers' Responsibility for Sharing Rosters with Program Assistant Applicants

- a. Anyone who has a potentially problematic dual/multiple relationship with a training's Lead Trainer, Co-Lead Trainer, Guest Trainer, Assistant Trainer, and/or Assistant Trainer Mentee is discouraged from applying to be a Program Assistant in that training.
- b. Assistant Trainers must share their trainings' current rosters with Program Assistant applicants before Program Assistants are chosen so they can screen for dual/multiple relationships.
- c. Assistant Trainers must share their trainings' current rosters with Program Assistants who have been chosen so they can screen for dual/multiple relationships, and this must be done every 2-3 weeks thereafter, during the time before the training begins.
- d. If a Program Assistant has a dual/multiple relationship with a participant that involves privileged communication, and the dual/multiple relationship is potentially problematic such that it cannot be ethically managed within the training (as determined by those in the dual/multiple relationship and in accordance with IFS Institute's dual/multiple relationship policy), then the Program Assistant is required to withdraw from the training.
- e. If a Program Assistant has a dual/multiple relationship with a participant that does not involve privileged communication, then the Program Assistant may either contact the other person(s) and resolve the situation in accordance with this policy before the beginning of the training, and thoroughly work out how the dual/multiple relationship will be managed through the end of the training, or contact the Lead Trainer. If a participant or Program Assistant is going to be asked to withdraw from a training in order to resolve a dual/multiple relationship that does not involve privileged communication, and that person is dissatisfied with being asked to withdraw, then at that time the Lead Trainer will send an email to IFS Institute's Executive Director, and simultaneously send a copy of that email to IFS Institute's Director of Staffing and Training Program Coordinator for their information. The final decision about how to handle a dual/multiple relationship that does not involve privileged communication rests with IFS Institute's Executive Director.

By signing below, I agree to abide by the terms of this dual/multiple relationship policy for all IFS Institute-organized IFS training programs in which I am a trainer, now and in the future.

Code of Conduct for Events and Activities Organized by IFS Institute, Inc.

Definition:

"Members" of IFS Institute's events and activities: Anyone who participates in, observes, teaches, or otherwise attends IFS Institute-organized training programs, conferences, webinars, teleconferences, workshops, online communities, or other functions.

IFS Institute requires that Members of its events and activities create and maintain a harassment-free event environment, regardless of gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, ability, physical appearance, body size, race, age, religion, or nationality. Harassment includes, but is not limited to:

- Aggressive or hostile verbal comments and other behavior that reinforces social structures of domination related to gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, ability, physical appearance, body size, race, age, religion, nationality
- Displaying or allowing to be displayed sexual images in public spaces
- Deliberate intimidation or stalking
- Unwanted or uninvited photography or recording
- Sustained disruption of IFS Institute events or activities
- Inappropriate physical contact
- Unwelcome sexual attention
- Advocating for or encouraging any of the above behavior

We expect Members of each event or activity organized by IFS Institute to abide by this Code of Conduct. IFS Institute reserves the right to pursue appropriate legal remedies or removal from IFS Institute events for any failure to abide by this Code of Conduct.

Training Program Purpose and Confidentiality

While IFS training programs contain experiential components, training programs are not psychotherapy sessions. All program components, including those that are experiential in nature, are for the purpose of teaching people to use the IFS model. Therefore, the interactions and information shared by Members are not privileged communications as they might be during actual therapy sessions. IFS Institute invokes training member confidentiality as long as disclosures of information at training programs (1) do not compromise anyone's safety, health or well-being, and/or (2) do not compel that the disclosed information be reported to appropriate law enforcement or regulatory authorities. The various professional and licensing organizations, as well as states, provinces, and other governmental jurisdictions, may have different policies regarding confidentiality for counselors, therapists, and other professionals; Members are responsible for knowing their particular and applicable governing policies, and for adhering to their professional standards for confidentiality if they are more stringent than IFS Institute's requirements.

Reporting a Code of Conduct Violation

To report a violation of this Code of Conduct, please follow the procedures in the Grievance Policy at IFS-Institute.com FAQ page.

Online Community Purpose

Our online community platforms, including but not limited to Facebook Groups, provide forums for shared experiences using the IFS model. In addition to the Code of Conduct, we have the following participation guidelines:

- Promotional posts: We will provide prompts to allow you to comment with any offers, products, or services you have available to the community. Please refrain from individual posts advertising for personal gain.
- Clinical consultation: No one may post information that could potentially breach client confidentiality.
- Medical disclaimer: Online communities are not substitutes for clinical diagnosis or treatment, nor is the information provided intended to replace consultation with a qualified health-care provider. If you're in crisis, please contact your local emergency services.

Please note the opinions and content on community group pages do not represent IFS Institute, nor do they necessarily represent the IFS model.

If you have any questions about online community issues, please contact Sara Oberg. Contact information is at www.ifs-institute.com

By signing below, I agree to abide by the terms of this code of conduct for all IFSI-organized IFS training programs in which I am involved, now and in the future.
